- Have unforgiveness toward yourself

Group Exercise B

Forgiveness Scriptures

 See to it that no one misses the grace of God and that no bitter root grows up to cause trouble and defile many. Hebrews 12:15 (NIV)

 A person's wisdom yields patience; it is to one's glory to overlook an offense. Proverbs 19:11

 He who covers over an offense promotes love, but whoever repeats the matter separates close friends. Proverbs 17:9

? After being sold into human trafficking by his jealous brothers, falsely accused of rape and being thrown in prison, Joseph had every reason to be angry and bitter. In a gripping encounter with his brothers 13 years later, Joseph said this to the brothers who sold him into slavery: "You intended to harm me, but God intended it for good to accomplish what is now being done, the saving of many lives." Genesis 50:20 (NIV) How do you think

Joseph came to this point of forgiveness? Do you think he would have been used by God to save the world from famine if he remained in bitterness?

- 📖 In your anger do not sin. Do not let the sun go down while you are still angry, and do not give the devil a foothold. Ephesians 4:26 (NIV)
- 📖 For I see that you are full of bitterness and captive to sin. Acts 8:23 (NIV)
- 📖 Those who oppose him he must gently instruct, in the hope that God will grant them repentance leading them to a knowledge of the truth, and that they will come to their senses and escape from the trap of the devil, who has taken them captive to do his will. 2 Timothy 2:25-26 (NIV)

? Why is it so important to let go of bitterness before we go to bed?

? How can bitterness grow and hold us captive to sin?

- 📖 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness. 1 John 1:9 (NIV)

- 📖 He who conceals his sins does not prosper, but whoever confesses and renounces them finds mercy. Proverbs 28:13 (NIV)

? How does confessing our sins give us freedom?

? Have you personally experienced liberty after a season of trying to hide your struggles? What happened?

- 📖 Make sure there is no man or woman, clan or tribe among you today whose heart turns away from the LORD our God to go and worship the gods of those nations; make sure there is no root among you that produces such bitter poison. Deuteronomy 29:18 (NIV)

- 📖 Do not make friends with a hot-tempered man, do not associate with one easily angered, or you may learn his ways, and get yourself ensnared. Proverbs 22:24-25 (NIV)

? Like a small root that grows into a great tree, bitterness springs up in our hearts and overshadows even our deepest Christian relationships. A bitter root comes when we allow disappointment to grow into resentment or when we nurse grudges over past hurts. What other unhealthy emotions usually accompany bitterness?

? How do you know if someone has issues with anger?

? Is bitterness contagious? Have you seen a group of people plagued by the bitterness of one person? Have you experienced the bitterness of others? How did you deal with the situation?

📖 "This is how my heavenly Father will treat each of you unless you forgive your brother from your heart." Matthew 18:35 (NIV)

📖 And when you stand praying, if you hold anything against anyone, forgive him, so that your Father in heaven may forgive you your sins. Mark 11:25 (NIV)

? Forgiveness often feels like something we do for the person who offended us, but harboring bitterness blocks our ability to receive forgiveness. Why is God more concerned about our freedom than defending our cause and proving us right? Have you ever experienced a dramatic release after a long period of holding onto bitterness?

SMART Goals

If you struggle with forgiveness, look over the above list of action points. Pick one or two and write out a measurable SMART goal. A smart goal means that your goal is specific, measurable, achievable, realistic and time bound.

S	Specific
M	Measurable
A	Achievable
R	Realistic
T	Time Bound

For example:

I will focus on strengthening my forgiveness by spending five minutes per day for the next two weeks meditating on Proverbs 19:11 to guard my heart.

Your Turn:

I will focus on my habit of forgiveness by _____

Index Prayers

Read Matthew 18:21 – 35

Write down the name(s) of the person/persons who have hurt you in the past on a card. Use a separate card for each person. On each card, write a prayer for that person. As you are faithful to pray, watch God change your heart toward those who have offended you.

Bless those who persecute you (Romans 12:14).
